DIRECTIONS:

1. Arrange the thawed chicken crumbles in a 2” deep half-size hotel pan and then mix in the garlic powder, onion powder and ground black

- pepper until thoroughly combined. Cover the pan tightly with aluminum foil. Heat in a preheated 350°F convection oven for 16-20 minutes, stirring 1-2 times to allow for even heating, or until the minimum internal temperature reaches 165°F. Hold the heated & prepared seasoned chicken crumbles covered in a hot box at 145°F until ready to serve.
- Heat the nacho cheese sauce according to the manufacturer's instructions. Transfer the heated cheese sauce into a squeeze bottle for service and hold covered in a hot box at 145°F until ready to serve.
  - Puree the Thousand Island dressing to get rid of any large chunks, then transfer the pureed dressing into a squeeze bottle for service and hold covered under refrigeration at 38°F until ready to serve.
  - When ready to serve, build the walking tacos by arranging the following components into individual serving bags, going from bottom to top:
 Mini whole grain corn tortilla chips: 2-ounces, prepared & heated seasoned chicken crumbles: ½-cup heated nacho cheese sauce drizzle: 2-tablespoons ,turkey bacon bits: 1-tablespoon, shredded romaine & lettuces: ½-cup (0.70 oz.) of each shredded lettuce, drained & chopped hamburger pickle chips: ½-tablespoon, fresh diced tomatoes: 2-tablespoons, thousand Island dressing drizzle: ½-tablespoon
