DIRECTIONS:

1. Combine the thawed chicken pieces and buttermilk ranch dressing in a mixing bowl until the chicken pieces are evenly coated. Transfer to a non-reactive food safe container, cover and marinate the chicken overnight.
2. The following day remove the chicken pieces from the ranch marinade and arrange them, skin side down, on a sheet pan lined with baking paper. Evenly distribute half of the ranch seasoning atop the chicken pieces, flip each piece over and evenly distribute the remaining half of the ranch seasoning atop the chicken.
3. Make sure the chicken pieces are skin side up on the sheet pan and cover it tightly with aluminum foil. Bake the pan of covered chicken in a preheated 350°F convection oven for 10-12 minutes. Remove the foil from the sheet pan and continue to bake the chicken uncovered for an additional 10-14 minutes, or until the glaze and seasoning sets on the chicken and the minimum internal temperature of the chicken pieces reaches 165°F. Serve immediately, or hold uncovered in a hot holding unit until ready to use.
